PREFACE.

I wish to thank Professor George E. Howard, of the Leland Stanford Junior University, for the interest in the study of political and social institutions, which came to me from his instruction, and for the encouragement and help which I have constantly received from him. I also owe a great debt of gratitude to Professor Benj. I. Wheeler, of Cornell University, joint-editor of the Cornell Studies, for his valuable assistance in the preparation of the present number. He has suggested literature, has given his judgment on critical points, has read manuscript and proof with patient care, and has aided and encouraged me in many other ways. I cherish for him as a scholar, teacher, and friend feelings of sincerest respect and love. Dr. A. G. Laird, of Cornell University, has rendered valuable service in the tedious work of verifying citations. Mr. G. W. Harris, librarian of the Cornell University Library, and Mr. W. H. Tillinghast, of the Harvard University Library, are remembered for their kind favors.

GEO. W. BOTSFORD.
