

LANCES HURLED AT THE SUN

Published @ 2017 Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd

ISBN 9780649624454

Lances Hurlled at the Sun by James H. Cotter

Except for use in any review, the reproduction or utilisation of this work in whole or in part in any form by any electronic, mechanical or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including xerography, photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, is forbidden without the permission of the publisher, Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd, PO Box 1576 Collingwood, Victoria 3066 Australia.

All rights reserved.

Edited by Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd.
Cover @ 2017

This book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, re-sold, hired out, or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form or binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

www.triestepublishing.com

JAMES H. COTTER

LANCES HURLED AT THE SUN

LANCES HURLED
AT THE SUN

200X
Cotter

Nihil Obstat :

THOMAS J. O'REILLY,

Censor Deputatus.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, September 28, 1912.

Imprimatur :

✠ CHARLES HENRY,

Bishop of Buffalo

October 10, 1912.

THE NEW YORK
PUBLIC LIBRARY

ASTOR, LENOX AND TILDEN FOUNDATIONS
R L

Faithfully Yours,
James W. Cotter

LANCES HURLED
AT THE SUN

BY

REV. JAMES H. COTTER, LL.D.

AUTHOR OF

"SHAKESPEARE'S ART"

1912

VSL

R

THE NEW YORK
PUBLIC LIBRARY
162331B
ARTHUR LENOX AND TILDEN FOUNDATIONS
R 1911 L

Copyright, 1912

PREFACE

THE errors of the day are being opposed by many able minds among the clergy—and among those in the foremost rank in this country stands the author of this volume.

With fine analysis, showing a masterly grasp of the subjects, strong arguments, and exquisite sarcasm, Doctor Cotter in clear, forcible and eloquent words, lays bare the many false teachings of the day, and by opposing to them the principles of truth and sound reasoning, he places a powerful barrier to their further progress. He would save the unwary from deception, and call back the deceived. The philosophy and the theology of the Church are the chief weapons he employs in his conflict with error, and hence the victories that attend this warfare. He proclaims with the Apostle, "The truth shall make you free." By spreading the truth he would save the unthinking and the unlettered from being made the dupes of the impious and the erring. The Church is the mouth-piece of Christ the God-man, and all who would be His followers, must hear the Church speaking in His name. "I am the light of the world," said Christ, and "he that follows Me, walketh not in darkness." To bring this thought to the mind of its readers, is the purpose of this book, that, acting upon it, they may be kept from going astray and becoming lost in the pitfalls of error that are gaping on every side. Men need a teacher—a uni-