[From the Records of the Corporation of Yale College, April 12, 1871.]

“Voted, To accept the offer of Mr. HENRY N. SAGE of Brooklyn, of the sum of ten thousand dollars, for the founding of a Lectureship in the Theological Department, in a branch of Pastoral Theology, to be designated ‘The Lyman Beecher Lectureship on Preaching,’ to be filled from time to time, upon the appointment of the Corporation, by a minister of the gospel, of any evangelical denomination, who has been markedly successful in the special work of the Christian ministry.”

PREFATORY NOTE.

Numerous friends have asked to see these lectures in book form, otherwise they would not have been taken from the columns of the newspaper for which they were reported when delivered, and in which for nearly a twelvemonth they have lain undisturbed. If read in the spirit in which they were conceived and delivered, they will do no harm to any reader, and possibly some preacher of the gospel, not yet unalterably fixed in his habits, may glean from them here and there a hint that will not be wholly without use to him.

Brown University, DEC., 1882.
