TO

THE MEMORY OF WILLIAM M. H. D'URBAN.

AND Death seems not the same that once it did,
For I shall follow his dear footsteps there ;
And they have always lead me only where
The Truth and Beauty were divinely hid.

THE twins said that really it was the thanksgivingest Thanksgiving we'd ever had. Everybody in the house was thankful; even Rachel. Before I go any farther I must tell you that Rachel is the dog,—a dear, long and narrow, knock-kneed dog, with very long ears; and she comes next in the twins' affections to Aunt Sue. First come mother and father, and then Bridget the cook, and then Aunt
