PREFACE.

THE Objects of this work are :

First. To place in cheap and handy form certain anecdotes, articles and other items which may be of use to the reader.

Second. To make suggestions upon POPULAR SUBJECTS that abler minds can enlarge upon in full.

Third. To give a view of New England farm life as we find it at the present hour.

Fourth. To give a few scraps from the life of TWENTY YEARS A "TRAMP."

ST. ALBANS, VT., May. 1889.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

There may appear a want of harmony between the "Letter to Col. Leavens" and the article "On Civil Government," but the former refers to the private citizen, the latter to the public servant. Some might claim it just as unmanly to be controlled by a constituency as by an employer, or a corporation. In a private capacity we should always act independently, in an official one we should obey our constituency.

ENDORSEMENTS.

The following is from the Editor of the Vermont Sentry :

"TRAMP'S NOTE BOOK" is an entertaining and instructive volume.

F. C. SMITH.

The Pastor of the Congregational Church at St. Albans, Vt., writes as follows :

"TRAMP'S NOTE BOOK" contains some valuable information, is interesting in its style and lofty in its moral tone. I have no hesitation in recommending it.

JOHN A. McCALL.

A distinguished Catholic priest says :

"TRAMP'S NOTE BOOK" contains very many good things.
