CONGRESSIONAL DOCUMENTS

FROM THE

FIFTEENTH TO THE FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS, INCLUSIVE.

This list is in no sense an index of Government publications, but only an enumeration of the volumes which constitute the set of Congressional documents, with the number or numbers contained in each. The contents of the individual volumes are indicated only in the case of such as contain each not more than three separate documents, when the subject to which each document relates is noted. It is thought that this will add much to the value of the list for purposes of reference. To extend this, however, to other volumes would be inconsistent with the object in view.

The documents of the first fourteen Congresses are not included, chiefly for the reason that the State papers or documents of the Senate and House of Representatives for that period have not been published in such form that a satisfactory list of volumes can be given. All the important documents, however, of these Congresses have been brought together and arranged according to their subject matter, and published in the American State papers. Documents are occasionally enumerated which are not found in the volume said to contain them, omitted, it is supposed, chiefly because they were not furnished the Public Printer. To specify such omitted documents has not been practicable.

The regular classification of documents as executive and miscellaneous began with the Thirtieth Congress. The first is supposed to embrace all documents sent to the Senate or House of Representatives by the Executive Departments; the second all other documents, excepting reports of committees, ordered printed by either House. This distinction is, however, not always maintained.

Except as otherwise indicated, the volumes of this series are octavo.
