FOR FURTHER STUDY

For review and further study of The International Language, reference should be made to A COMPLETE GRAMMAR OF ESPERANTO (by the author of A Practical Grammar of Esperanto) published by D. C. Heath and Company.

A COMPLETE GRAMMAR OF ESPERANTO is arranged especially for High School and college use, to serve not only for the learning of the language itself but to prepare the student for taking up other languages, ancient and modern, as now taught in High Schools, colleges and universities. But it will be found very useful to those who have completed the briefer treatment of the language given in A Practical Grammar of The International Language.

Copies of the "Complete Grammar" may be obtained from The American School of Esperanto at $1.25 each, postpaid.

INSTRUCTION

THE AMERICAN SCHOOL OF ESPERANTO is prepared to give correspondence instruction to those students of the international language who wish to read, write and speak the language fluently and according to the best international style.
