PREFACE.

THE following pages were not originally intended for Publication. They were written for the instruction of a deaf and dumb child, in whose education it was necessary to employ the simplest form of language; and the object of the writer, therefore, was to convey, in such language, as much scriptural and religious knowledge as the pupil was capable of receiving.

It has been suggested, that, as this little history was found to interest the child for whom it was at first intended, it might possibly be made useful in other cases; either in the instruction of the Deaf and Dumb, or among children in general. It is, therefore, now published, in the humble hope, that he, who not unfrequently condescends to employ the weakest instruments, may bless this feeble endeavour to lead the young to the knowledge of his Holy Word.
