FOREWORD

It is in the hope that we may come to see more clearly the right values among us, and that seeing them, we may come to use them better, and that using them better, we may conserve them, that this book is written. If it shall help to add to the appreciation of man for man, if it shall aid to take away the unnecessary burdens placed by man on man, if it shall in any degree lead to the happier and more productive working of man with man, its purpose will have been fully served.
