MEMORANDA CONCERNING THE GENERAL SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS AND OTHER STATE SOCIETIES

---

The General Society was organized May 9th and 10th, 1893, in the Governor's Room, City Hall, New York, by delegates from five States and the District of Columbia. It consists of the Societies now existing and such other State Societies as may from time to time be duly organized and authorized by the General Society. It has sole power of action in the National, as distinct from the State, affairs of the organization. It has jurisdiction to pass upon all questions of eligibility referred to it by the Registrar-General. It does not otherwise interfere in the regulations of government of any State Society, unless by a plurality vote of the General Assembly, when the surrender of the charter of a State Society may be demanded, should an investigation show that such action is necessary for the welfare of the Societies at large. It has power to grant charters in States other than those in which the Society is already organized. It issues the insignia and the diplomas of membership, and publishes the Annual Register with the co-operation of the several State Societies, the cost being defrayed by the latter in proportion to their membership.

The General Council is composed of all the General Officers, and exercises the powers of the General Society (except those of demanding State Charters and of amending the Constitution) between meetings of the General Assembly, to which latter body it regularly reports all its transactions. The General Council meets semi-annually in the months of November and May on such days as may be fixed by the Governor-General or in the case of his inability, by the Secretary-General. Meetings are usually held in the City of New York.

GENERAL ASSEMBLIES.

The regular meetings of the General Society are termed "General Assemblies," and are held once every three years, at such time and place as the preceding General Assembly appoints.
