This Poem

IS RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED.

GENTLEMEN—It is with the sincerest emotions of regard, that I dedicate the following Poem to you, not only as a Society and collectively, but also individually. The many pleasant hours that we have passed together, are ever dear to me in the remembrance, and with the warmest gratitude for your liberal and undeserved kindness, I esteem it an especial privilege to be permitted to dedicate this Poem to you, as a slight evidence of that attachment which cannot be expressed by words; and trusting that the sunshine of prosperity, which has illumined your pathway, may ne'er be shadowed by a single cloud,

I have the honour to be,

Your sincere friend and fellow member,

ALFRED WHEELER.
