Breathes there the man with soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said,

 This is my own, my native land!
Whose heart has ne'er within him burned,
As home his footsteps he hath turned

 From wandering on a foreign strand?
If such there breathe, go mark him well;
For him no minstrel raptures swell;
High though his titles, proud his name;
Boundless his wealth as wish can claim,
Despite those titles, power and pelf
The wretch concentred all in self;
Living shall forfeit fair renown,
And doubly dying shall go down
To the vile dust from whence he sprung,
Unwept, unhonored and unsung.
