Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, by WILLIAM BRIGGS, at the Department of Agriculture.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE.

No more opportune time than this year of the "Diamond Jubilee" could have been chosen for the appearance of a collection of poems so full of patriotic fire as these of Dr. Jakeway's. Long urged to publish a volume of his verse, the Author has yielded happily at a time when the daughter-nations of our British Motherland are gathering about her to celebrate with becoming splendor and dignity the sixtieth year of Her Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria's glorious reign.

We believe these fine patriotic poems will strike a responsive chord in the hearts of all Canadians, of whatever origin—and not of them only, but of our fellow-subjects in other climes whose pride it is to own allegiance to the "meteor flag of England." With more than mere mercenary motives, the Publisher hopes for a wide circulation of this admirable volume.
