CLASSMATES :

In presenting this report, covering the past five years, my first desire is to acknowledge the prompt, full, and satisfactory replies which came from the large proportion of the class. The task of compiling the report, thus made lighter, became a pleasure as well, and my hope is that the following record will be acceptable to those who thus cooperated with me. Of the one hundred and fifty-two surviving members of the class, it will be noticed that nineteen are marked "no report." No one regrets more than myself that these could not have done their share towards making the record complete. Of the thirty-eight surviving temporary members of the class, all but nine retain their interest in the class.

We have lost by death, during the past five years, W. H. Baker, and Lombard, of the regular members, and Kent, Mackintosh, and Warren, of the temporary members.

The statements in the following pages concerning the Class Fund show the same to be in a highly satisfactory condition.

One hundred and one of the regular members of the class are known to have married. The tables of "Marriages" and "Children" are intended to show the record since graduation.

Accept the usual hearty good wishes for your continued success and happiness.

Class Secretary.

RECORD OF THE CLASS.

JUNE, 1884—JUNE, 1889.

JAMES LLOYD ABBOT.

Has continued in partnership with Lyman C. Dorgan, Esq., under the firm name of Dorgan & Abbot, cotton buyers, doing business in Mobile, Ala., where he has also resided. Was married in 1881; his second child, Serena Lyon, was born Nov. 10, 1885, and his third child, James Lloyd, Jr., was born Sept. 15, 1888.

WILLIAM FITZHALE ABBOT.

Writes as follows: "I have continued my connection with the college department of the Worcester High School since the last report was published. Much of my leisure time has been occupied with private tutoring. I have also given some time to antiquarian research, especially in a genealogical way. I am a member of the Massachusetts Reform Club, — which indicates my political preferences, — of the Essex Institute of Salem, Mass., and of the Worcester Society of Antiquity; of the latter society I have been secretary since February, 1885." Was married in 1882; a son, Edmund Quincy, was born July 26, 1884; twin sons, Hale Wellington and Larcom, were born July 30, 1885, but the latter died Aug. 8, 1886. Resides at 26 William Street, Worcester, Mass.

RICHARD MINOT ALLEN.

Writes as follows: "Have continued as assistant manager of the Standard Cattle Company. In 1886, changed my residence from Texas to Ames, Neb., where I now am. At this point we have an establishment for feeding and fattening cattle in connection with ranches in Wyoming. Was married at Colorado Springs, Col., July 14, 1884, to Mrs. Virginia Coggeshall, of Cheyenne."

EUGENE NELSON ASTON.

Died in Springfield, Mass., Feb. 23, 1878.
