To the question: "Is life worth living?" every healthy mind responds in the affirmative. Only those who are in some measure insane depreciate the value of life. When it is suggested, however, that life may be perpetuated, many people deny their inclination thus eternally to continue existence. Is the desire to live forever born of a natural state of mind or a disordered imagination? Which is the true aspiration? A rational, clearly defined desire is the first impulse toward its own successful attainment; hence the importance of this question.

It is generally admitted that at times
