INTRODUCTION.

The abnormal conditions due to the war have brought about many delays and difficulties in the preparation of this Index. Several compilers have aided in the work, and minor inconsistencies may be discovered. The Index is not presented as a model of everything that an index should be, but it is believed to be reasonably accurate and sufficiently complete to meet the ordinary needs of those who may have occasion to consult the Transactions.

The index is in two parts: a GENERAL INDEX and a SUBJECT-INDEX OF TABLES. If the subject desired is not found in one part, the other part should be consulted. Many titles will be found under the SUBJECT-INDEX OF TABLES which do not appear in the GENERAL INDEX.

GENERAL INDEX.

The GENERAL INDEX covers the first fifteen volumes of the Transactions, together with the discussions in Volume XVI of papers appearing in Volume XV. The main headings, including names of authors, have been arranged alphabetically. The items under each heading are generally shown in the order in which they appear in the Transactions, but under a few headings, where the number of items is large, they have been arranged alphabetically to facilitate ready reference.

Members. The names of the members of the Society up to the end of 1915 appear throughout the body of the Index, with the date of admission as Associates or Fellows, offices held, papers presented, participation in discussions, etc., thereby indicating the activities of each member in the Society, aside from committee work, up to the end of 1915.

The Society was originally composed only of "Members." In April, 1896, the class of "Associates" was added, the term "Members" being retained for the senior degree of membership. In October, 1905, the Constitution was amended to read, "The membership of the Society shall be composed of two classes, Fellows and Associates." Although the term "Fellows" was not adopted until October, 1905, its use in the Index has been extended, for convenience, to designate "Members" elected prior to that date.

The asterisk (*) before a Fellow's name denotes Fellowship by examination.

Legal Notes. Under this title (page 64) will be found the Notes prepared by Mr. Wendell M. Strong, arranged alphabetically according to subject. Reference to these Legal Notes will also be found throughout the body of the GENERAL INDEX according to subject and according to the names of both parties in the cases cited.

SUBJECT-INDEX OF TABLES.

This Index covers matter presented in tabular form in the first fifteen volumes of the Transactions. The arrangement is similar to that of the GENERAL INDEX. The names of the members of the Society or other persons following the tables denote the authors of the papers or discussions in which the tables appear, even though they may not have been the original compilers of the tables.

Mortality and Mortality Tables. The items under these headings have been arranged alphabetically, and include some tables not listed elsewhere in the Index. The heading MORTALITY covers the subject in a general way. Where a graded q_x column is shown, the reference will usually be found under MORTALITY TABLES. Some tables are listed under both MORTALITY and MORTALITY TABLES.

The following table shows the volume, pages and dates, for each number of the Transactions. This table will be especially useful to those whose Transactions have not been bound in volumes.
