Songs of Yosemite

DAWN FROM GLACIER POINT

Love, It Is Day

DAWN FROM GLACIER POINT

A dreaming glow that deepens fold on fold,
A riven mountain head against that glow,
A trembling halo, flash of arrowed gold,—
And day hath dawned in one refulgent flow.

A glow that doth a dreaming heart incite,
A flush of virgin wonder, a trembling ray
Of consciousness that some great living light
Out-treads the night and brings love's day.
