AT the beginning, let me make a thank-offering to Miss Katharine Lee Bates, of Wellesley College, for careful criticism and advice that has smoothed many rough places and added to the value of this book. Then let me pour the libation of friendship and of loving gratitude to Miss Irene Ingalls Cleaves, who saw these stories slowly grow during three years of teaching, and who, through all that time, by patient help and clever suggestion, aided in making them what they are.

Jennie Hall.
