Preface.

WAS it not said by some great sage
That life is an unwritten page?
We write our fate, and when old age
Or death comes on,

 We drop the pen.

From good or ill, from day to day,
Each deed we do, each word we say,
Makes its impress on the clay,
Which molds the minds

 Of other men.

And all our acts and words and deeds
Sown o'er the past, whence future deeds
Spring up to form our wheat or weeds;
And as we've sown,

 So reap we then.
