A CHRISTMAS GREETING.

I've read sometime, I know not where,
The Christ Child comes to every heart
On Christmas eve and asks, "What message
Will you send your friend ere I depart?"
And if the messages have been
Of kindly thought and cheer
For one another, on Christmas morn
The sunbeams smile, the sky is clear
And all the world looks glad,
But if too many hearts have answered not
The sky is cloudy and the world looks sad.
I know not if the story's true,
I like the thought and so have written it for you,
And whether skies are clear or gray
I wish for thee and thine, A Merry Christmas
Day.
