PREFACE

AN apology is due our readers for the late appearance of this, the ninth volume of Harvey Lectures. For this delay in publication full responsibility must fall on the undersigned, who assumed the duties of editor on account of the absence in Europe of the Secretary, Dr. John A. Mandel.

We wish to express, as in former years, obligations for permission to reprint those lectures which have already appeared in medical and scientific journals: To the editors of Science, The Archives of Internal Medicine, and the American Journal of Medical Sciences for allowing us to republish, respectively, the lectures by Prof. Parker, Dr. Cole, and Prof. Schmidt.

April, 1915.

ROBERT A. LAMBERT, Acting Secretary.

THE HARVEY SOCIETY

A SOCIETY FOR THE DIFFUSION OF KNOWLEDGE OF THE
MEDICAL SCIENCES

CONSTITUTION

I.

This Society shall be named the Harvey Society.

II.

The object of this Society shall be the diffusion of scientific knowledge in selected chapters in anatomy, physiology, pathology, bacteriology, pharmacology, and physiological and pathological chemistry, through the medium of public lectures by men who are workers in the subjects presented.

III.

The members of the Society shall constitute three classes: Active, Associate, and Honorary members. Active members shall be laboratory workers in the medical or biological sciences residing in the City of New York. Associate members shall be such other persons as are in sympathy with the objects of the Society. Honorary members shall be those who have delivered lectures before the Society and who are neither active nor associate members. Associate and honorary members shall not be eligible to office, nor shall they be entitled to a vote.

Members shall be elected by ballot. They shall be nominated to the Executive Committee and the names of the nominees shall accompany the notice of the meeting at which the vote for their election will be taken.
