HISTORY OF THE FOUNDATION.

ON June 6, 1899, the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania accepted from the Rev. George Dana Boardman, D.D., LL.D., and wife, a Deed of Gift, providing for a foundation to be known as "The Boardman Lectureship in Christian Ethics," the income of the fund to be expended solely for the purposes of the Trust. After provision for refunding out of the said income, any depreciation which might occur in the capital sum, the remainder is to be expended in procuring the delivery in each year at the University of Pennsylvania, of one or more lectures on Christian Ethics from the standpoint of the life, example and teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the publication, in book form, of the said lecture or lectures within four months of the completion of their delivery. The volume in which they are printed shall always have in its forefront a printed statement of the history and terms of the Foundation.

On July 6, 1899, a Standing Committee on "The Boardman Lectureship in Christian Ethics" was constituted, to which shall be committed the nominations of the lecturers and the publications of the lectures in accordance with the Trust.

On February 6, 1900, on recommendation of this committee, the Rev. George Dana Boardman, D.D., LL.D., was appointed Lecturer on Christian Ethics on the Boardman Foundation for the current year. And on November 18, 1900, Dr. Boardman delivered the inaugural lecture on "The Golden Rule."

On December 12, 1905, on recommendation of the Boardman Lectureship Committee, the Rev. Oliver Huckel, S. T. B. (Boston), graduate of this University, Class of '87, and also graduate student of Berlin and Oxford, was appointed Lecturer on Christian Ethics on the Boardman Foundation. And on March 20, 1906, Dr. Huckel delivered a lecture on "A Modern Study of Conscience."
