PREFACE.

THE arrangement of this Supplement is the same as that of the book to which it forms a supplement, the notes and commentaries being placed under the sections of the Indian Easements Act to which they respectively appertain, or to provisions of which they respectively relate or are assignable.

All the notes and commentaries in the Supplement have also been fitted in to their exact proper places in the 2nd Edition of the main book, by a reference, prefixed to each, to the page and exact place in the page, of the 2nd Edition to which it appropriately belongs; so that the reader has only to note in the margin of his copy of the 2nd Edition, at the places indicated, references to the respective pages in the Supplement containing the new notes or commentaries which fit in to those places.

The Addenda and Corrigendum include notes of several cases in Reports published, in the present year, after the body of this Supplement or the portion of it in which, respectively, they would, if published in time, have been included, had been printed.
