He that tells the tale bears witness that the hereafter to be mentioned Sir Uchtred of Garthland is not that William Mac Dowall of Garthland in the parish of Stoney Kirk, who was a most constant and serious professor and defender of the Covenants National and Solemn League, and several times americiat to the spoiling of his goods by David Graham, sometime Sheriff of Wigtoun. The kindly reader will take carefully this advertisement, both for truth's sake, and still more, that the tale teller may dwell at peace in his own land, where men have long memories, and one may not speak hastily of another man's kin. So all shall be well.
