LETTERS ON THE
PHILOSOPHY OF THE HUMAN MIND.

BY SAMUEL BAILEY.

FIRST SERIES.

LONDON:
LONGMAN, BROWN, GREEN, AND LONGMANS.
1855.

PREFACE.

THE origin and design of the following Treatise being fully set forth in the Introductory Letter, it remains only to say that the discussions contained in the volume form a series, which (should the casualties of life permit) will be probably followed at no distant time by another or others on kindred topics.

A cursory inspection of the Table of Contents will show that the author has not yet touched upon a number of related questions of an interesting character, and presenting a wide field for free investigation. On some of these he hopes, sooner or later, to be able to state the views which a long and patient consideration of them has suggested to his mind.

Norbury, near Sheffield, Feb. 20th, 1855.
