FAITH IN GOD AND CHRIST

'Let not your heart be troubled ; ye believe in God, believe also in Me.'—JOHN xiv. 1.

WHEN these words were spoken the friends of our Lord had cause for trouble. He Himself just before had been troubled in spirit, and the agitation and distress must have excited their dismay. And though He had now recovered His calmness, He had been telling them things which filled them with sorrow and fear. All those mysterious words about His sufferings, which had often perplexed them, now took definite form and were to be at once fulfilled. One of their own number, so He said, was to betray Him. As the result of the be-
