The Holy Land, Idumea, Arabia, Egypt, and Nubia.

Reduced from the lithographs by Louis Haghe; with Historical and Descriptive Notices, and an Introductory View of Jewish History, by the Rev. George Croly, LL.D. Part I, as a specimen of the work, will be sent to any address, carriage free, on receipt of 3s. 6d. in postage stamps. Messrs. Day and Son are preparing for publication, in double tinted lithography (facsimiles of the original issue), an edition of the above magnificent work, which will alike be suitable for the library or the drawing-room table. To ensure positive identity between this and the original edition, the whole of the plates have been reduced to the required size by means of photography, thus ensuring the reproduction of all the beauties of the originals, both of effect and artistic touch. A prospectus may be had on application, containing the names of the 250 prints of which the work consists:—"The Holy Land, Syria, Idumea, Arabia, Egypt, and Nubia. Following in the footsteps of our Lord, or in those of his Disciples, every spot treated by the artist is consecrated ground, hallowed by associations so deeply interesting, as very largely indeed to enhance the value of these views, beautiful as they are, considered merely as works of art. The series is a rich and full volume of enjoyment and instruction, teaching while giving pleasure, and aiding to confirm that faith which is the surest basis of human happiness." Agents required for the sale of the work in every town and district.

EIGHT HUNDRED GUINEAS' WORTH OF GOLD WATCHES AND GOLD CHAINS

GIVEN TO THE PURCHASERS OF

THE ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE,

Which is Published in Monthly Twopenny Numbers, and Half-crown Annual Volumes, all of which are always in print.

THE ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE has been now established three years, and has the largest circulation of any Monthly Periodical. The number of its Subscribers is daily extending, whilst the literary matter, the beautiful Illustrations, and the MAGNIFICENT ANNUAL PRIZES, are commensurately increased in value. Already there have been given away, in the most public and bonâ fide manner, TWENTY-FIVE GOLD WATCHES, made by BENNETT, Cheapside, London, of the full value of FIFTEEN GUINEAS each, and ONE HUNDRED GOLD CHAINS, the workmanship of the same manufacturer, worth FOUR GUINEAS each, making an astonishing total of Eight Hundred Guineas' Worth of Golden Gifts given away in Two Years.

Throughout the length and breadth of the United Kingdom; in England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, and even in the Channel Islands, evidences exist of the thorough honesty and liberality which have governed the Proprietors of the ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE. The truth of the statement, if it is doubted, can be ascertained immediately, by reference to any one of those fortunate possessors of one of Bennett's Gold Chains or Watches, or by making an inquiry of any Bookseller or News-vender in the Empire. The following is a great fact—undeniable and easy of proof—One Hundred and Twenty-five Purchasers of the ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE have received Gifts to the amount of Eight Hundred Guineas; not worthless, trashy articles, but in twenty-five instances an elegant First-Class Gold Watch; and in one hundred instances a Gold Chain, suitable to attach to the Gold Watch,

Two Hundred Prize Cheques, of the Value of Two Guineas each, which were the Gifts decided on for Vol. III.

In order to ensure a share in the Annual Distribution, nothing else is required than the purchase of a bound Volume of the ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE, price 2s. 6d., or of the twelve Monthly Twopenny Numbers, constituting a Volume.

The First Number of Vol. IV was published on May 1.

To any part of the United Kingdom the Twelve Numbers will be regularly sent for Twelve Months, on receipt of 2s. in Postage-Stamp, or Post-Office Order payable to the Publisher,

SAMUEL O. BRETTON, 18, BOUVERIE STREET, LONDON.

BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE.

PUBLISHED MONTHLY, PRICE TWOPENNY.

Suitable Prizes, of not less Value than 100 Guineas, Annually distributed amongst the Purchasers.

THE BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE is issued with the view of furnishing the Youth of Great Britain with a Periodical especially adapted to their reading. Many of the Serials of the present day do contain portions suited to the intelligence and requirements of Boys, but there is not one (except the BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE) entirely devoted to their culture and amusement.

The pages of the BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE contain Articles of interest, amusement, and healthful and moral excitement, calculated at once to produce pleasure and convey instruction. Tales of Adventure, Stories of Heroism and Courage, are recited; the youthful days of celebrated Individuals are told correctly and simply, and show how the industrious and persevering character of the boy ripened into the activity and greatness of the man. History, charming and romantic in its truth, is not forgotten in the columns of the BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE. The Games which enliven and strengthen the mental or physical powers are described, so as to be easily understood. The Natural History of Animals, of Birds, and Fishes, will also be written, not omitting that of Plants, Trees, and Flowers. The Engravings are numerous and first-rate. The Publishers aim, in short, to produce a Book which may safely be entrusted in the hands of all Boys—one that will "please them and do them good." The Distribution of Prizes will be upon the same model as that of the ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE, which has given such universal satisfaction to its thousands of purchasers. The first Annual Gift with the BOYS' OWN MAGAZINE will be which will be manufactured and warranted by BENNETT, WATCHMAKER, CHEAPSIDE, where the Twenty Watches may now be seen. Mr. Bennett has supplied to the Proprietors of the ENGLISHWOMAN'S DOMESTIC MAGAZINE the Watches and Chains distributed amongst their Subscribers, and with general and complete satisfaction. They have therefore selected him as the maker for their Gifts with the present Magazine.—The Watches will shortly be distributed at the various Booksellers and News-venders in the different Counties of Great Britain, that the Subscribers may view them.
