ADVERTISEMENT.

THE present Volume of MISCELLANIES is given to the Members of the CHETHAM SOCIETY in the confidence that it will be the first of a series in which much interesting matter will be found.

The Council trust that its appearance may encourage the contribution of numerous documents which, though too short in themselves to form separate Volumes, will possess sufficient value to entitle them to publication. Already the Council have been favoured from various quarters with communications having sufficient importance to warrant them in commencing the preparation of a second Volume; and they take this opportunity of reminding the Members of the CHETHAM SOCIETY, and others who have an interest in antiquarian pursuits, that good service may be rendered to the future labourers in the field of historical research by rescuing from oblivion materials hitherto buried in private collections.

Nothing which tends to throw light on the habits, customs, and institutions of our race, can be uninteresting to those who make mankind their study. Thus old wills, letters, deeds, authentic examples of early heraldry, materials for elucidating topography, or family, county, and general history, examples of the progress of language and of the arts, may each and all find their appropriate place in these Volumes.

Any persons desirous to further the objects which the Society propose in the publication of Miscellanies, are requested by the Council to intrust their contributions to the care of the Treasurer, Mr. WILLIAM LANGTON, at the address of Sir B. HEYWOOD, Bart., and Co., Bankers, Manchester.
