PREFACE.

THE object of this Work is to bring together into one view, under separate heads, for the convenience of the Clergy, all that relates to each branch of the important subjects, to which the Church Building Acts refer: passing over, with a mere reference, as not being applicable to the present purpose, those clauses which relate to Deeds of Conveyance, to the issue of Exchequer Bills, and to matters of common form.

Palace, Wells, October 1, 1841.

CHAPTER I.

Grant of Exchequer Bills.

58, Geo. 3, cap. 45, sec. 1.

WHEREAS the population of Great Britain, and more particularly in the Metropolis and its vicinity, and in other cities and great towns, has greatly increased, and the Churches and Chapels now existing in the Metropolis and its vicinity, and in many great and populous Parishes and Extra-parochial places, are inadequate to the accommodation of the inhabitants thereof: And whereas it is therefore necessary that such evil should be remedied, and that additional Churches and Chapels for the celebration of divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland as by Law established, should be erected and maintained in such Parishes and places, and that a certain number of free seats should be made therein: And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, is desirous of aiding His subjects in the establishing additional Churches in such Parishes and places as may require the same: May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the King's most excellent Majesty, by Warrant or Warrants under His Royal Sign Manual, to authorize and empower the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland now or for the time being, or any three or more of them, or Grant of Exchequer Bills not exceeding one million.

the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, to cause or direct any number of Exchequer Bills to be made out at His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, not exceeding in the whole the sum of one million, in the same or like manner, form, and order, and according to the same or like rules and directions, (except where other directions for making out the same are contained and particularly expressed in this Act,) as in and by an Act made in the forty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the issuing and paying off of Exchequer Bills, are enacted and prescribed.

The issue of Exchequer Bills explained, and the rate of interest fixed.

See 58, Geo. 3, cap. 45, secs. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7; 59, Geo. 3, cap. 134, secs. 1, 2; and 5, Geo. 4, cap. 103, secs. 2, 3, 4.

A second grant of Exchequer Bills not exceeding £ 500, 000.

See 5, Geo. 4, cap. 103, sec. 1.
