THE MOTHER'S VICTORY.

HER part was done!—A willing sacrifice
To all the bidding of a mother's love,
She'd kept the vigils by her dying babe.
The throne of Grace had heard the frequent prayers
Her fervent soul pour'd forth. Her part was done!
Jesus had made the tiny pillow smooth,
And now her infant slept. No fever'd dream
Disturb'd the sweet composure of his brow;
And life's rude turmoil on his listless ears
Fell powerless. Nor could the fond embrace,
That had so oft the little weakling soothed,
