

DIOCESAN HISTORIES; SALISBURY

Published @ 2017 Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd

ISBN 9780649697557

Diocesan Histories; Salisbury by William Henry Jones

Except for use in any review, the reproduction or utilisation of this work in whole or in part in any form by any electronic, mechanical or other means, now known or hereafter invented, including xerography, photocopying and recording, or in any information storage or retrieval system, is forbidden without the permission of the publisher, Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd, PO Box 1576 Collingwood, Victoria 3066 Australia.

All rights reserved.

Edited by Trieste Publishing Pty Ltd.
Cover @ 2017

This book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, re-sold, hired out, or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form or binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

www.triestepublishing.com

WILLIAM HENRY JONES

DIOCESAN HISTORIES; SALISBURY

DIOCESAN HISTORIES.

SALISBURY.

WYMAN AND SONS, PRINTERS,
GREAT QUEEN STREET, LINCOLN'S INN FIELDS,
LONDON, W.C.

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

A.D. 634-705.

THE FOUNDATION OF THE EPISCOPATE IN WESSEX.

Birinus the first missionary to the West Saxons—State of Wessex at the time of his arrival—Character of an ancient bishopric—Extent of the kingdom of Wessex at the beginning of the seventh century—Nature of the mission of Birinus—Relations between the English and British Churches—First successes of Birinus—Establishment of the See of Wessex at Dorchester in Oxfordshire—Share of the British Church in the conversion of Wessex—Decense of Birinus—His successors in the See of Wessex—Efforts to divide the West-Saxon diocese. . . Page 17

CHAPTER II.

A.D. 705-909.

FIRST SUBDIVISION OF THE SEE OF WESSEX.

First subdivision of the See of Wessex—Ina, the king, a principal promoter of it—Aldhelm first Bishop of Sherborne—Extent of the diocese, all "west of Selwood"—Life and labours of Aldhelm—Churches and monasteries

Reviews 4.22-42
N.T.T.

founded by him—The “ecclesiola” at Bradford-on-Avon still remaining—Successors of Aldhelm in the See of Sherborne—State of the people, and various efforts made for their religious instruction—Alfred the Great—His account of the general ignorance, and his attempts to remedy it Page 35

CHAPTER III.

A.D. 909-1075.

SECOND SUBDIVISION OF THE SEE OF WESSEX.

Second subdivision of the See of Wessex—The Sees of Sherborne, Ramsbury, Wells, and Crediton—First cathedral at Sherborne—Successive Bishops of Sherborne—Bishops of Ramsbury—Odo, Siric, and Ælfric successively promoted to the Primacy—The homilies of Ælfric—Herman the last Bishop of Ramsbury—The two Sees of Sherborne and Ramsbury united and removed to Old Sarum—Churches named in the Domesday Record as existing at the Norman Conquest—Notes in the same record as to the Clergy—Religious houses—Malmesbury, Ambresbury, Wilton, Shaftesbury—Their use and influence in ministering to the moral and material wants of the people—Mischief arising from special exemptions claimed by them Page 50

CHAPTER IV.

A.D. 1075-1194.

THE SEES OF SHERBORNE AND RAMSBURY UNITED, AND THE “BISHOP-STOOL” REMOVED TO OLD SARUM.

Osmund, Bishop of Old Sarum—He founds a Cathedral and a Cathedral Chapter at Old Sarum—The “Use of Sarum”—Life and character of Osmund—Successors of CONTENTS.

7

Osmund—Roger, Jocelin de Bohun, and Hubert Walter—Progress of the Church in Sarum in the eleventh century—Churches and castles built at Sarum, Malmesbury, and Devizes—The Cistercians in the diocese of Old Sarum—Principles of their order, and effect of their preaching and example Page 67

CHAPTER V.

A.D. 1194-1257.

THE SEE REMOVED TO NEW SARUM.

State of the Church at the close of the twelfth century—The country under an interdict—Bishop Herbert Poore—Additional endowments of the Cathedral—Richard Poore becomes Dean of Sarum—The cathedral system at Old Sarum and its various purposes—Originally, a cathedral was of a missionary character—Richard Poore becomes Bishop of Sarum—Designs entertained of removing the see from Old to New Sarum—Various means resorted to for accomplishing it—The New Cathedral designed and its foundations laid—Service first held in it—The clergy of the Cathedral who were the fellow-workers of Bishop Richard Poore—Henry of Bishopeston, Edmund Rich, Robert Grosseteste, Robert Bingham—State of the clergy generally—Visitation of the prebendal estates by the Dean—Influence of the building of the New Cathedral on other parishes—Early English architecture—Churches of that date still remaining to us—Religious houses founded at this period, Lacock, St. Nicholas-at-Sarum, Easton—General state of ignorance and neglect—Churches unconsecrated—Foreigners promoted to English benefices—The Friar Preachers at Wilton and Salisbury Page 84

CHAPTER VI.

A.D. 1250-1380.

COMPLETION OF DIOCESAN ORGANIZATION, AND THE DEMANDS AND EXACTIONS OF ROME.

Canonization of Edmund, Archbishop of Canterbury, once treasurer of Sarum—Claim of the Bishop to visit the Cathedral resisted—Chantries founded in the Cathedral—Colleges of “de Valle Scholarum” and St. Edmund founded—Rights of the Chapter in a vacancy in the See—Churches of St. Edmund and St. Thomas the Martyr—Gifts in lands and houses to the Cathedral—Ecclesiastical organization of the diocese completed—Number of churches—Encroachments of Rome and abuses from non-residence—Suffragan Bishops—Code of Cathedral statutes—Claims of monasteries for exemption from episcopal jurisdiction—Papal “provisions” and their evil effects—The Knights Hospitaliers and their estates in the diocese—Bishop Robert Wyville—He enlarges the cloisters and completes the wall of the close—He recovers Sherborne Castle for the See—The Nonal Inquisitions for Wilts, Berks, and Dorset—William of Edington and his foundation—Bishop Ralph Erghum founds a hospital near Sarum—Inquiry as to foreigners holding benefices and dignities in the diocese

Page 109

CHAPTER VII.

A.D. 1380-1500.

THE “STATESMAN” CLASS OF BISHOPS, AND GRADUAL APPROACH OF THE REFORMATION.

The “statesman” class of bishops—Low condition of the Church as a spiritual agency—Wycliffe and his followers, the itinerant preachers or Lollards—Bishop John Waltham—Growth of outward observances—The claim successfully maintained of visiting the Cathedral—Bishop Mitford—His costly memorial in the Cathedral—Cardinal Hallam—His death at the Council of Constance—Evidences of the influence of the Church of Sarum at this period—Diocesan bishops and their suffragans—"Brothers of the Chapter"—Mode of appointing them—Bishop Aiscough—His death at Edington—Low condition of the Church at this period—Bishop Beauchamp and his five suffragans—Canonization of St. Osmund, founder of the Cathedral at Old Sarum—Building of the Church of St. George's, Windsor—The Bishops of Sarum made Chancellors of the Order of the Garter—Progress in church-building at this time—Increase of outward ceremonies—General character of the bishops—Their inability to cope with the real needs of the people—Increasing influence of the trading classes in the towns—the "Merchants of the Staple"—Churches built or restored by them—Deplorable state of the religious houses and of the clergy—Jersey and Guernsey for a few years included in the diocese of Sarum. . . Page 132

CHAPTER VIII.

A.D. 1500-1571.

THE CHURCH OF SARUM AT THE REFORMATION.

The dawn of the Reformation—Probable number of churches and chapels in the diocese—Extension of vernacular teaching—John Colet, afterwards Dean of St. Paul's, a prebendary of Sarum—Lorenzo Campeggio, the last of our foreign bishops—His deprivation by Act of Parliament—Nicholas Shaxton, his injunctions to the clergy of his diocese in 1538—Sad state of things re-