SOME INFORMATION.

The State of New Jersey offers twenty dollars to every school district, to start a free School Library. After the first year the State offers ten dollars every year. To secure this State gift the School district must raise by gift (not by tax) at least, an equal amount. This money cannot be used for text books, salaries, or other expenses. It may be used for maps or instruments or globes.

Send to the "State Superintendent of Education," Trenton, N. J., for the State's gift, as soon as the needful sum (or more) is raised.

When you order books, send to the publisher the school price of the books with the order. In all cases use the forms herewith given. To obtain any other book at less than publishers' price, address F. E. Grant, No. 7 West 42d street, New York, enclosing return postage.

The special attention of teachers and scholars is called to the care of the books.

For copies of this list, address "Box 41, Madison, New Jersey."

For Free School Libraries only, in New Jersey, special arrangements have been made with the publishers named on this list to allow forty (40) per cent. discount on such of their books as are suitable for school libraries.

The affidavit must accompany every order. The following lists give only a few publications. Teachers who want a publishers' list, can get one by enclosing ten cents (for postage), to the publishers:
