PREFACE

The idea of this book is to point out to the thousands of unskilled women, often with domestic cares, who are anxious to work but do not know how to turn their abilities to financial advantage, ways of increasing their incomes.

The suggestions have in nearly every case been proved practical by the test of actual experience. Many will, of course, not do for any given locality or conditions; but among them all it is believed that almost any woman will get some ideas which will prove of value. The "business woman" has innumerable avenues of employment open to her nowadays; if this little volume proves of assistance to her less fortunate sisters it will have achieved its aim.
