FOREWORD

TO THE CLASS OF EIGHTY-SIX:

When the printers cease from troubling and the price of paper is at rest, and when the Class Secretary can devote to the task the amount of time which the work demands, a Class Report adequately setting forth the history of the Class and the achievements of its members will be issued.

In the meanwhile the following brief Report is presented to mark our Thirty-fifth Reunion.

Your classmate,

THOS. TILESTON BALDWIN.

Boston, June 15, 1921.
