LIFE AND SYLVIA.

A CHRISTMAS JOURNEY.

HERE was a long pause. Sylvia, curled up on the hearth-rug, stared at the blaze. Uncle Will glanced impatiently toward the window against which the rain still dashed, and yawned again. He was sure that in a minute or two Sylvia would beg for another story: he knew the very tone of coaxing command she would use.

"Uncle Will!" It was the tone he had expected. But Sylvia's face
