THIS book is dedicated to the Chairman and Members of the HOWARD ASSOCIATION, who have done so much to rescue the Orphan Children of this country from a contamination which is often worse than death.

"I thought I heard a voice from heaven saying,
'It shall be well for thee . . . that such . . . are the angels who behold my Father's face.'"

A Walk in a Workhouse. DICKENS.

NOTE.—The author is indebted to the editor of the "Spectator" for permission to republish the poem entitled "Anxiety" at the commencement of Chapter XIII.
