THE COMBAT WITH THE DRAGON.

A Romance.

I.

WHAT means that dense, tumultuous throng,
The crowded streets that rolls along?
Is Rhodes enveloped in a blaze?
A mass of people chokes the ways,
And o'er all others' heads I spy
A knight on charger mounted high;
And see! they drag, who can explain?
A hideous monster in his train;
In shape a dragon it would seem,
With crocodile's wide-opened jaws;
And all men's eyes alternate beam
On knight and dragon with applause.
