I.

ADORATION.

"After this manner, therefore, pray ye: Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name."—ST. MATT. vi. 9.

FAMILIARITY blunts the edge of most things, and no doubt the Lord's Prayer is repeated millions of times every day without much thought of its meaning.

There was a time when any kind of prayer to the Supreme Being would have seemed too great a liberty; but now the most solemn forms of prayer are gabbled off with less consideration than men give to their equals. "Be not rash with thy mouth," said the Wise Man; "and let not thine heart be hasty to utter anything before God: for God is in Heaven and thou upon earth; therefore let thy words be few." The advice was excellent and can never be out of date. But our Saviour has brought us nearer to the Throne of Grace; and in the light of His revelation we see that 'God is Love,' and
