TO THE
RIGHT HON. LORD TREDEGAR.

MY LORD,

I was privileged to inscribe to you my Reprint of Theophilus Jones's History of Brecknockshire, in the production of which you manifested a kindly interest.

I have thought that the following pages of Biography and Letters of the Historian might be acceptable to his countrymen, and I am happy in the knowledge that the enterprise has your lordship's approbation.

To you, therefore, the most generous Patron of Welsh Education, Literature, and Art, the distinguished and beloved Welsh Hero and Philanthropist, I likewise Dedicate this Volume, and count myself doubly honoured in being permitted to do so.

I am, my Lord,

Your obedient servant,

THE EDITOR.

RIGHT HON. LORD TREDEGAR.
