DEMOCRACY AND THE DOG COLLAR

G. A. STUDDERT KENNEDY

'His publishers are well justified in advertising this author's writings as "the remarkable books by G. A. Studdert Kennedy."'—Church Times.

'There is a good deal of truth in the claim that the Rev. G. A. Studdert Kennedy is the most remarkable preacher of the day.'—Church Family Newspaper.

The Sorrows of God and other Poems Food for the Fed-Up

This is a new volume of addresses by the author of 'Lies!' and of those two books 'The Hardest Part' and 'Rough Talks by a Padre,' which the critic in The Weekly Dispatch described as 'the most powerful books of their kind since Bunyan.'

Peace Rhymes of a Padre

'The straight talk to perfection.'—Times. 'Expressed with extraordinary force and outspokenness.'—Bookman.

A THIRD EDITION has just been published at 2s. 6d. net paper of LIES!

'We doubt if any priest of our communion, or perhaps any communion at all, has such a gift of startling speech. . . . He speaks as the preaching friars may have spoken, in the language of the wayfaring man taken up into and fused with the eloquence of a master.'—Church Times.

HARRING

THE FAITH AND THE HOPE

When through the whirl of wheels and engines humming,
Patient in power for the sons of men,
Peals like a trumpet promise of His coming,
Who in the clouds is pledged to come again ;

When through the night the furnace fires flaring,
Shooting out tongues of flame like leaping blood,
Speak to the heart of Love alive and daring,
Speak of the boundless energy of God ;

When in the depths the patient miner striving
Feels in his arms the vigour of the Lord,
Strikes for a kingdom and the King's arriving,
Holding his pick more splendid than the sword ;

When on the sweat of Labour and its sorrow,
Toiling in twilight flickering and dim,
Flames out the sunshine of the great to-morrow,
When all the world looks up because of Him :

Then will He come with meekness for His glory,
God in a workman's jacket as before,
Living again the eternal gospel story,
Sweeping the shavings from His workshop floor.
