Melody. The Story of a Child. 16mo, cloth . . . $0.50

Had there never been a "Captain January," "Melody" would easily take first place. — Boston Times.

"Melody," though the story of a child, is scarcely to be classed among stories for children. At least it is from older readers it will receive its finest appreciation. The quaintly pretty, touching, old-fashioned story is told with perfect grace, the few persons who belong to it are touched in with distinctness and with sympathy. Like the dainty, antiquated, yet ever young figures on a Watteau fan, in faint colors but charming postures, they move sympathetically, stirred by the strain of music that holds them together like threaded pearls. — Milwaukee Sentinel.

Captain January. Square 16mo, cloth (white back) .50

A charming idyl of New England coast life, whose success has been very remarkable. One reads it, is thoroughly charmed by it, tells others, and so its fame has been heralded by its readers, until to-day it is selling by the thousands, constantly enlarging the circle of its delighted admirers.

Same. Illustrated Holiday Edition. With thirty half-tone pictures from drawings by Frank T. Merrill. An entirely new edition, handsomely printed on calendered paper from new and large type. 4to, cloth, unique and dainty cover design in white, gold, and color . . . . . 1.25

Narcissa, and a companion Story, In Verona. 16mo, cloth . . . . . .50

When I was Your Age. 4to, cloth, gilt top . . . 1.25

A series of papers which has already delighted the many readers of St. Nicholas, now revised and published in book form, with many additions. The title most happily introduces the reader to the charming home life of Dr. Howe and Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, during the childhood of the author, and one is young again in reading the delightful sketches of happy child life in this most interesting family.

Glimpses of the French Court. Sketches from French History. Illustrated with a series of portraits in etching and photogravure. Square 12mo, cloth 1.50

The history of France, during the eighteenth century, is a treasure house of romantic interest, from which the author has drawn a series of papers which will appeal to all who care for the picturesque in history. With true literary touch, she gives us the story of some of the salient figures of this remarkable period.

Marie. (In press.) Square 16mo . . . . . .50
