DEDICATION.

TO EDWARD JOHN TRELAWNY.

A SEA-MEW on a sea-king's wrist alighting,

As the north sea-wind caught and strained and curlea
The raven-figured flag that led men fighting
From field to green field of the water-world
Might find such brief high favour at his hand
For wings imbrued with brine, with foam im searled,
As these my songs require at yours on land
That durst not save for love's free sake require,
Being lightly born between the foam and sand,
But reared by hope and memory and desire
Of lives that were and life that is to be,
Even such as filled his heavenlier song with fire
Whose very voice, that sang to set man free,
Was in your ears as ever in ours his lyre,
Once, ere the flame received him rom the sea.
