PREFACE.

MY theme is grand, too grand for even an archangel's thought to compass. It is a theme which the more we contemplate the more we are lost in adoring awe and wonder.

I have sometimes seemed to tread on very holy ground in the following pages, but I have ever sought to do so reverently, and have been careful not to go a hair's breadth beyond the line for which I believed I had scriptural warrant.

Whatever good may be in this little book belongs unto the Lord; only the imperfections and failures that mar it are mine. Should the Holy Spirit be graciously pleased to use it to help some brother or sister to clearer views or higher thoughts of Love Divine, to comfort, strengthen, and build up,—or better still, to reveal to the heart of some poor sinner the wondrous love of God to him,—then blessed, ever blessed be His holy name.

His alone is the power, and His the glory; mine the joy of “the friend of the Bridegroom, which standeth and heareth Him, rejoicing greatly because of the Bridegroom’s voice.”

Go forth, little book, and serve the Lord of Heaven and Earth.

H. D. B.
