VISIONS.

"She was a phantom," &c.

I N lone Glenartney's thickets lies couched the
lordly stag,
The dreaming terrier's tail forgets its customary
wag ;
And plodding ploughmen's weary steps insensibly
grow quicker,
As broadening casements light them on toward home, or home-brewed liquor.

It is in brief the evening—that pure and pleasant
time,
When stars break into splendour, and poets into rhyme ;
