PREFACE.

THE design of this little work (like that of its predecessor, "Poetry for Play-hours") is simply to entertain children through the medium of rhyme and metre, and to open their hearts to the beauties of nature and the love of birds and animals.

Trusting that it may obtain a ready circulation among children of various ages, and so add, in its own small degree, to the enjoyments of the Christmas holidays.

ST. LEONARD'S-ON-SEA,

December 11, 1868.
