GIFT FOR YOUNG STUDENTS

○ Mrs. Carlton,
With the respects of the author

GIFT

FOR

YOUNG STUDENTS.

BY

H. G. Creamer

"Thought in the mine may come forth gold or dross;
When coined in word, we know its real worth:
If sterling, store it for thy future use;
'T will buy thee benefit, perhaps renown,
Thought, too, delivered, is the more possessed;
Teaching, we learn; and giving, we retain."

Young.

ANTICIPATION.

“ Alas ! we trace
The map of our own paths, and, long ere years
With their dull steps the brilliant lines efface,
On sweeps the storm, and blots them out with tears ! ”
MRS. HEWANS.

THE young Wilburnes were laying plans for the future, forming schemes for life, or building castles in the air, as some good people would have termed their employment. “ I,” said Ferdinand, “ intend to be a great orator ; I will rivet the attention of my hearers ; their thoughts shall be concentrated upon the subject of my harangue. They shall listen with breathless wonder, and then, when I look around, and survey the crowded hall, and see the audience completely in my power, and fascinated
