I DEDICATE THIS LITTLE VOLUME

TO

SIR HENRY CRAIK, K.C.B., LL.D.,

Secretary to the Scotch Education Department ;

A loyal friend and genial colleague, whose zeal and success in educational administration have earned for him the warmest thanks of his fellow-countrymen.

PREFATORY NOTE.

THE unexpectedly favourable reception accorded to my 'Memories Grave and Gay,' seconded by requests from kindly critics for a further instalment, has tempted me to take up my pen once more. I do so not without a fear, amounting almost to a foreboding, that it may be with me as with many others, to have been fairly successful in a first attempt and fail in a second. Is it with writing as with love? Can one with safety make a slight adaptation of Tennyson and say, 'Tis better to have tried and failed than never to have tried at all? "I hae my doots."
