SOME

ACCOUNT, &c.

Messrs. JOHN BULL, and CO.

LONDON.

GENTLEMEN,

WE yesterday dined with our relation Colonel NEVER-PAY, at whose convivial board, we had the honour of meeting your Agent SIM-EON SLEEPY, Esq. this gentleman, after dinner, shewed us your Power of Attorney for receiving payment of the debt due to you from us: This sum, he says, is 188,347*l.* 13*s.* 7*d.* we promised said gentleman to write you this day, and make you

you a remittance; but owing to some unforeseen accidents, we are sorry at not being able to comply with the latter part of our promise at present:—you may, however, depend on receiving something bandsome from us soon, and in the interim you may rest assured that your property is very secure in our hands, as our friend Sleepy will inform you.

We have just fitted out on our own accounts, two ships for Batavia, one for the Isle of France, one for Bengal, and one for Nootka Sound and China; besides which, we own five ships, seven brigs, nine schooners and fifteen shallops, with many millions of acres of valuable land, &c. &c. which we calculate will more than lift the debt due to you ten times over, we therefore again repeat, “make your minds easy on our accounts,” and rest assured that for the kind indulgence which you have granted us for many years past on the above sum, it shall be our particular study to make you ample amends, by recommending mending you some valuable commissions, &c. It is for this purpose that we now introduce to your friendly notice the bearers—General Snap and Colonel Trap, with which gentlemen we have formed a connexion in the dry goods line, and have purchased a valuable stand in the township of Sbarks, which is now fitting up as a store.

With the approbation of our much valued friend Sleepy, we have ventured to assure our friends Snap and Trap, that they may depend on being furnished with a general assortment of dry goods in your country, through your friendly aid and recommendation; perhaps it may not be improper for us to remark, that in future our remittances to you for debts already due, must greatly depend upon the supplies that our friends Snap and Trap obtain in your country—therefore do not fail of recommending them strongly to your manufacturers and tradesmen. We likewise beg that you will not omit to see the goods shipped
