PASSAGES
IN THE
LIFE AND MINISTRY
OF ELBERT OSBORN,

An Itinerant Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church,

ILLUSTRATING
THE PROVIDENCE AND GRACE OF GOD.

Written by Himself.

"HITHERTO HATH THE LORD HELPED ME."

NEW-YORK:
PUBLISHED FOR THE AUTHOR, AT THE CONFERENCE OFFICE, 309 MULBERRY-STREET.

Joseph Longking, Printer,
1847.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

COPIES of communications from Rev. George Coles, assistant editor of the Christian Advocate and Journal; Rev. Edwin E. Griswold, member of the New-York Conference, now pastor of the M. E. Church in Hempstead, N. Y., formerly pastor of the M. E. Church in John-street, New-York; and John M. Howe, M. D., New-York.

“NOVEMBER 5, 1846.

“To all whom it may concern :

“I have read the entire manuscript entitled, ‘Passages in the Life and Ministry of Elbert Osborn, an Itinerant Minister of the Methodist E. Church, &c.’; and I hesitate not to say that, as a true and faithful narrative of God’s dealings with one whose sole desire seems to have been to do the will of God, it is entitled to the fullest confidence of any one into whose hands it may fall. With a single eye to the glory of God in every line, the author, with a beautiful simplicity and unwavering truthfulness, traces those passages in his past life which strikingly illustrate the grace and providence of God.

“G. COLES.”

"NEW-YORK, May 25, 1846.

"DEAR BROTHER, I have read your manuscript with much satisfaction. It is full of incident, and sufficiently interspersed with brief and pointed practical observations. If published, I think it will be very useful to the humble followers of Christ.

"E. E. GRISWOLD."

"NEW-YORK, June 23, 1847.

"I concur in the opinions expressed by the Rev. Geo. Coles and the Rev. E. E. Griswold, and heartily desire that the book may be extensively circulated and read, believing that it will be conducive in cultivating among professing Christians a continued and unwavering trust in the providence and grace of God.

"JOHN M. HOWE."
