PREFACE.

THE publication of the following Sermons requires a few words of apology.

The writer of them is fully conscious that many hundreds of better Sermons, and with therefore a more legitimate claim to public notice, are preached every Sunday, in the pulpits of the English Church. He has yielded, however, to the request for publicity made by many of those who heard the Sermons preached, on two grounds; the first, that members of his own flock—more especially those who are beginning their married life—might have a manual, however imperfect, of the duties they were undertaking; the second, that, having long lamented the absence of direct pastoral instruction in the Church at large on this subject, he might assert for it its rightful place in Christian ethics, and eventually perhaps procure for it at the hands of some more highly gifted brother a treatment worthy of its vast importance.

CONTENTS.

SERMON I.

CHRISTIAN WARRIAGE.

PAGE

EPHESIANS v. 31, 32. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery : but I speak concerning Christ and the church	1

SERMON II.

THE CHRISTIAN WIFE.

EPHESIANS v. 22—24. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church : and he is the Saviour of the body. Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing	20

SERMON III.

THE CHRISTIAN HUSBAND.

PAGE

EPHESIANS v. 25—33. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: for we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church. Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband	38

SERMON IV.

THE CHRISTIAN CHILD.

EPHESIANS vi. 1—3. Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth	58

SERMON V.

THE CHRISTIAN FARENT.

	PAGE
EPHESIANS vi. 4. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath : but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord	78

SERMON VI.

THE CHRISTIAN SERVANT.

EPHESIANS vi. 5—8. Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ ; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers ; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart ; with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men : knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free	98

SERMON VII.

THE CHRISTIAN MASTER.

EPHESIANS vi. 9. And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening : knowing that your Master also is in heaven ; neither is there respect of persons with him	117
